TANGLED SITUATION.

Such is the Condition of the United States Senate.

THE FUTURE IS ALL AT SEA.

It is Utterly Impossible to Tell What May Be Looked For Next.—The Compromise Measure Not Entirely Given Up—The Situation Sized Up By a Washington Paper.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—The situation in the senate has now become more tangled than it has ever been since the beginning of the session, says a morning paper. It is utterly impossible to tell what may be looked for next. The so-called Gorham compromise, which was expected to harmonize all Democratic differences and lead to a speedy solution of the difficulty, struck a rock and seems to be a complete wreck, though all hope of getting it into port has not been abandoned.

The rock it struck against was presidential disapproval. It had been drawn up with the express view of getting something that Democratic senators could all vote for and that the president would sign even if he would not approve of it in advance. It was given out that this caucus committee compromise was acceptable to the administration, and it was with that understanding that administration senators affixed their names to a petition asking the chairman of the finance committee, Senator Voorhees, to submit the compromise in the senate in the form of an amendment to the repeal bill.

Several senators withheld their signatures until they were assured by the senators having the matter in charge that it would meet with the approval of the president and that the administration would be, in fact, very well satisfied with it, and would accept it as the best thing obtainable under the present condition of affairs.

These senators were very much surprised to find that the administration had never given any sort of an approval to the scheme and would not do so under any circumstances, but was as unalterably opposed to compromises of all kinds as on the first day congress met. They declared that they had been made the victims of misrepresentation and several of them withdrew their names from the petition, claiming that they had put them there with the express understanding that the administration would be satisfied with the proposed measure if it did not, in fact, desire it.

THREE DAYS WITHOUT WATER.

Terrible Suffering of Two Men in a Western Desert.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Oct. 25.—Yesterday brought news that John Pulser, a young miner, and Conrad Linerick, an old German, were rescued on a desert between here and Yuma Yuma, on Oct. 10, by Joseph A. Allison and T. H. Silsby of this city, after a frightful experience in which they nearly died of thirst. Neither of the men was used to traveling, and took few of the precautions customary with old prospectors.

When found, Pulser had been without water for three days. He had dug a well six feet deep for water, but without success, and crazed with delirium he had lain down to die. His companion, whose strength failed some miles back, had crawled under a mesquite bush and recovered strength sufficient so that he had next day gone back over the trail to a brackish pool, where he had remained in reach of water. The men are now fast recovering.

Preparing for the End.

CHICAGO, Oct. 25.—The council of administration has ordered Director of Amusement Millet to carry out the plans for the celebration next Saturday and prepare the final program for Columbus day. The closing day program is expected to be the complement of the opening day exercises in several ways. One of the features will be a spectacular reproduction on a large scale of the landing of Columbus. This scene will be enacted on the lake front with the caravels anchored off shore. At sunset all the flags on all the buildings will be furled—the signal that the fair is closed, just as the flying of the flags was the signal on May 1 that the exposition was formally opened. The grounds and buildings will be kept open until midnight of Oct. 30 and some informal exercises will be held the following morning.

Main Still Lives.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—The investigation of the police into the shooting of David Bolton, Sunday night, by a man in ambush, brought out the fact that there is a branch of the Mafia at Inwood, L. I. There are 45 members in the order. The man who shot at Bolton proved to be a Greek, whose true name is Pedro Pinolo, one of the leaders of the Mafia. The citizens of Inwood, say their lives have been threatened on several occasions by the members of the Mafia and that they have to go armed to protect themselves. Bolton was evidently taken for some one else by Pinolo, when he was shot at.

TOPEKA, Oct. 25.—There now seems to be no probability of a strike on the Santa Fe system. The chairman of the grievance committee of the locomotive engineers and firemen employed on the system were in conference with General Manager Frey, and the situation and prospects of a speedy return to regular payment days were fully canvassed. The visitors departed with the understanding that the employees in their departments would wait with patience until the company could pay.

THE LAST DAY.

Program of the World's Fair October 30. Closing Day.

CHICAGO, Oct. 25.—The committee on ceremonies has completed the program for Oct. 30, incident to the official closing of the fair.

The committee has fully considered the advisability of providing an entertainment for the visitors during the day as will harmonize with the program prepared and suggested that the national salute be fired at sunrise, at noon and at sunset, at which times the liberty bell will be rung.

At 10:30 a representation of the landing of Columbus will take place on the lake front, between 12 noon and 1 p. m. daylight fireworks will be fired from various points within the grounds. Following this a monster band concert will be given between 2:30 and 4:30 p. m. on administration plaza.

During the evening there will be a brilliant illumination of the grounds and buildings, concluding with a grand display of fireworks on the lake front and in the court of honor.

The exercises of the day will be participated in by the national commission, board of lady managers, board of directors, foreign and state commissioners, officials of the national commission and of the world's Columbian exposition. Suitable reservations will be made in the hall for these bodies, and the unassigned space will be given to visitors who may desire to witness the ceremonies without the formality of presenting cards of admission.

The following is the program of exercises:

Music.

Prayer.

Address by the president of the world's Columbian exposition.

Music.

Address by the director general.

Music.

Address by the president of the board of lady managers.

Address by a representative of American exhibitors.

SUDDEN SURPRISE.

Columbus Street Railway Employees Unexpectedly Quit Work.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 25.—A strike was ordered by the advisory board of the Columbus Street Railway Employees' union. No intimation of a strike had been given and most of the men learned of it for the first time when they went to the barns to take their cars out yesterday morning. The strike was ordered because of the discharge of two metormen, members of the advisory board, for infractions of the rules.

The company ordered all the men to work or to consider themselves discharged. About 35 out of the 300 men refused to take their cars. There was some interference from strikers and friends, but police protection was promptly furnished. The company ran cars all day with some interruption on Maine and Oak streets.

Death of James A. Demaree.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 25.—James A. Demaree, practically the founder of the Knights of Honor, died suddenly Tuesday at his residence in this city. Mr. Demaree was one of the original 17 which met in this city in 1873 and formed the organization which at his suggestion was named the Knights of Honor. He devoted the last 20 years to the order and saw it grow from a membership of 17 to 185,000 with lodges in every state in the Union. He held the position of grand reporter since 1875 continuously, and was also supreme reporter. He was a prominent member of the Masons and Odd Fellows.

No Agreement Reached.

LONDON, Oct. 25.—There is a hitch in the negotiations going on between France and Great Britain in regard to the Buffer state, which it is proposed to create between the French and British territory in Siam. A representative of the British foreign office, Sir Thomas Henry Sanderson, has been to Paris in order to make an effort to come to some satisfactory understanding upon the subject. The English diplomats have not been successful up to the present, but it is hoped that the negotiations will be resumed in an amicable spirit before long.

Hong Kong News.

VICTORIA, B. C., Oct. 25.—The steamship Empress of Japan has just arrived from Hong Kong. The Hong Kong press says: The Douglass steamer Fokien on Sept. 21 brought news of the wreck of the British bark Florence Treat at Breaker Point. The vessel was on a voyage from Singapore to Shanghai with timber, and during the night of the 8th inst. was driven helplessly on the rocks by the high wind and soon became a total wreck. Only three were saved out of 28 on board.

Will Play for the Championship.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 25.—Alfred A. De Oro, the champion pool player of the world, and W. B. Clearwater, champion of America, arranged a match for $100 a side, to be played here in two weeks. Three games of 200 points each will be played.

Krug's Shortage Made Good.

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 25.—The bondsmen of Adolph Krug, the defaulting city treasurer, together with the banks of this city, have made arrangements to return to the city treasury $122,000, the amount of the shortage.

Chemist Blown to Atoms.

MELBOURNE, Oct. 25.—A chemist named Tiardet was blown through the wooden wall of his laboratory while experimenting with a powerful explosive which he had just perfected after years of labor and the outlay of thousands of pounds. His body was scattered in fragments in all directions.

NOW IN JAIL.

A Brace of Noted Criminals Captured at Brazil, Ind.

BRAZIL, Oct. 25.—The police have discovered that in the capture of John and Jack Huey, arrested a few days ago just east of here for stealing a team of horses, a wagon and 20 bushels of wheat from farmers between here and Indianapolis, they have secured much-wanted criminals.

Nineteen years ago the Hueys lived at Knightsville, this county, and were sent to prison for robbing a store. While acting as "trusties" they escaped from the prison south. Afterward John Huey was arrested for the murder of a man in Greene county and he was sentenced for 18 years, but he again escaped. A few years afterward he was arrested at Terre Haute for counterfeiting and was sentenced from the federal court at Indianapolis. Jack Huey has been implicated in various thefts and counterfeiting jobs and has served several terms in the penitentiary.

The police have secured evidence showing that Jack Huey, assisted by a Brazil crook, robbed the postoffice at Knightsville a few months ago, and a few nights later he almost killed Fred Boyer, a Harmony saloon-keeper, by chloroforming him while he was asleep and robbing the saloon. The bedclothes around Boyer were saturated with the drug and he was almost dead when found. Authorities from different parts of the state where the Hueys are wanted telegraph that they will be present at the trial and make an effort to secure the couple.

THE OUTCOME IN DOUBT.

The Midland Railwv Still Blocked by Employes.

LEBONAN, Ind., Oct. 25.—The strike on the Chicago and Southwestern, better known as the Midland railway, has not yet been adjusted. The section-men and shophands on the West End refuse to allow the trains to run over that end of the road. They are determined to prevent the road from operating until they receive their pay. The road, they claim, owes them for two or three months' wages, and no compromise except a full payment will suffice.

The men who have stood by the road through all its troubles heretofore have now struck, saying that they have been patient until their patience and their credit have both become exhausted. Grocers refuse to take their "time" any longer as there is no chance to realize thereon. The trains on the east end are running a part of the time. The city treasurer has made a levy on some of the rolling stock. It is likely that a receiver will be applied for unless the claims of the hands are paid at once. A compromise has been proposed but not accepted. The outcome is in doubt.

Second Trial of a Murder Case.

PRINCETON, Ind., Oct. 25.—The celebrated trial of the state of Indiana against Charles E. Johnson came up for hearing in the Gibson circuit court yesterday. Johnson is charged with murder in the first degree for the killing of Jacob App in a clubhouse in the city of Evansville about one year ago. He was tried at the January term of this court and the jury hung—three of the jurors believing him to be innocent. Owing to the social standing of the young man the trial creates considerable interest. Johnson's father is one of Evansville's first citizens and his mother is a sister of the venerable Judge Parrott, ex-Congressman from the First district. An array of legal talent seldom seen in southern Indiana is engaged in the case.

Read the Riot Act.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 25.—A sensation was created on the Shaw civil service trial before the United States district court when District Attorney Jolly got up and read the riot act to the defense. He claimed that there had been a conspiracy hatched and carried out by Shaw, Scott and Riley to filch money from the employees in the revenue service. He claimed further that the objections raised by the counsel for the defense to his questions were only for the purpose of preventing the bringing to light of the conspiracy. Several witnesses were examined on both sides. One witness swore that at the dissolution of the society formed by Shaw, there was a balance of from $1,500 to $1,800, which had never been accounted for.

A Flood of Financial Bills.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—Senator Sherman told an Associated Press reporter that he was contemplating the introduction of a bond bill and that it would probably incidentally make some provision for the use of silver. Many other senators have financial bills in contemplation. The outlook is indeed good that the regular session will be flooded with financial bills, and no one need be surprised if the Fifty-third congress should develop a record of financial discussion almost as important as the one now closing.

Drowned While Duck Hunting.

BREMEN, Ind., Oct. 25.—George W. Loney, a prominent farmer, residing near this city, went to Wood lake in company with his brother-in-law, John Snyder, to shoot wild ducks, and in attempting to launch the boat, Loney accidentally fell into the water and was drowned. It was several hours before his body was recovered. Loney's sudden death was a shock to the entire neighborhood.

Gasoline Explosion.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 25.—There was a terrific explosion on the Mississippi Valley railroad yard. Three tanks of gasoline and a car of gasoline and powder were discovered on fire and a few minutes later exploded, sending up a flame fully 500 feet high, producing a concussion that was felt throughout the city. No lives were lost. Loss, $20,000.

Two Negroes Lynched.

SHREVEPORT, La., Oct. 25.—Near Shreveport, Bossier parish, some 20 miles above this city, two negroes were lynched Thursday night, the news of which has just reached this city. The negroes are said to have been notorious hog thieves and the mob, it is stated, was composed of both whites and blacks.

PREPARING FOR DEFENSES.

The Defendants in the Wratten Murder Case Engaging Legal Counsel.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., Oct. 25.—Clinton K. Thorpe, mayor of Washington; Thompson W. Harting, deputy prosecutor; James Porter, county commissioner, and William Freeman, attorney, all of Daviess county, are at the prison south, having private talks with the accused in the Wratten murder case. Mayor Thorpe will probably defend Len Williams, Grandson Cosby and J. F. White.

It is conceded by the prosecution that Cosby was in town on the night of the murder. Mayor Thorpe thinks that Stone is the only guilty man. All of the gentlemen say there is nothing in the story of a lack of hair of Mrs. Wratten being found on one of the accused, but they confirm the discovery of Force of Chicago that a stranger evidently slept in the house on the fatal night, and probably committed the murderers.

They also say that the excitement at Washington continues intense, but that Stone's story is discredited. Even his underclothing was soaked with blood. The theory that he did the murder alone is not believed here, since the hounds, after attacking him the day after the murder, made straight for Dubois county and the vicinity of several of the accused. Stone sent for Chaplain Strauss this morning, but the chaplain refused to see him.

ANOTHER RAILROAD WRECK.

Thirteen Passengers Injured on the Indiana and Illinois Southern.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 24.—An Ellington (Ills.) special to The Post-Dispatch reports the ditching of a passenger train on the Indiana and Illinois Southern road, in which 13 passengers were injured.

The wrecked train was the outbound passenger on the Indiana and Illinois Southern railroad. The wreck occurred at 6 a. m. The rear coach became derailed and went over an embankment, turning over twice, with 12 passengers in it. Benjamin Jewell of this county is fatally injured, while all other occupants of the car were more or less seriously hurt. The injured were taken to Mercy hospital, this city, where they are receiving medical aid.

Man S.'s Father Dead.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 25.—When Mrs. Mary Clancy went to clean the office of the city engineer in the public building today, she found a chunk of stuff on the floor near the door that Chief of Police McNichols recognized as dynamite. Calling in an expert, he was alarmed to learn that his suspicions were correct and that there was enough to blow the top off the building. There is no explanation given how the dynamite got into the engineer's office.

He Must Die.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 25.—A special from Frankfort, Ky., says: In the court of appeals this morning the motion for a rehearing in the case of the commonwealth against George Armstrong of Spencer county, was overruled. Armstrong is under sentence of death. Under the new ruling of the court its mandate must be certified to the governor at once and the latter will fix a day for Armstrong's execution.

Given a Life Sentence.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 25.—A special from Middlesboro, Ky., says: George Marler, a brother and accomplice of Bob Marler, sentenced to be hung for killing Mrs. Bolling, was given a life sentence yesterday. On the first poll, the jury stood 6 for hanging and 6 for life; on the second poll it stood 7 to 5 and on the third it agreed. It is the general belief that this is the death knell of lawlessness in this locality and there is a feeling of relief.

They Are Still There.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Oct. 25.—The gang of 40 unemployed workmen from California, who reached here a few days ago, are still here. They have not been fed for two days and some of the men have been unable to obtain food by begging and are suffering intensely from hunger. They captured a perishable California fruit train, but were sidetracked, and the train remains on the track. Loss to the company will be heavy.

Fire in San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 25.—A fire that broke out in D. A. McDonald's planing mill and lumber yard on Spear street consumed the entire plant and burning through the block to Stuart street destroyed Robinson's wheel manufacturer, James Kemp's office and store fixture works, the Swift planing mill, H. Crocker & Sons' boat building establishment and several small buildings.

Hard for the Heathen.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—In reply to a complaint of the Chinese minister in Washington, Mr. Yang Yu, the state department has made representations which indicate that the United States government will not accept consular certificates as conclusive evidence that the Chinese subjects presenting them are merchants or artists, and therefore entitled to admission to this country.</

WEATHER FORECAST.

The latest is that the Gubernatorial bee is buzzing in the ears of Senator Goebel, of Covington. Governor Goebel would sound well, but it wouldn't suit the Covington Commonwealth.

JACOB WILE, of Mogadore, O., was afraid to trust his cash in a bank and concealed it in a bed. At last accounts he hadn't succeeded in finding the thief who carried away nearly $4,000 of his money.

"ANTE-ELECTION enthusiasm alone secures no victories," is the warning of the Cincinnati Tribune to Ohio Republicans. Members of the Ohio G. O. P. must be getting uneasy as the time draws near for the battle of the ballots.

The formal announcement of Mr. C. E. Brosee as a candidate for City Clerk appears elsewhere in this issue. He is an industrious and worthy young man, thoroughly qualified for the office. For several years Mr. Brosee has held a responsible position with the Maysville Water Company.

BLACKBURN'S BREAK.

The Papers Roasting Kentucky's Senior Senator For His Stand on the Silver Question.

Mt. Sterling Sentinel-Democrat: "If Joe Blackburn don't mend his ways his heels will strike the ceiling when he asks to be United States Senator again."

Harrodsburg Democrat: "Joe Blackburn, who no longer deserves to be called a Kentucky Democrat, aided in the filibustering that threatens to annihilate the rule of majorities as well as the life of the Democratic party."

Pendleton Democrat: "Senator Blackburn has humiliated the Democracy in this county by the position he has taken on the repeal of the Sherman Silver bill. So far as we have heard there isn't a Democrat in the county that indorses him."

Harrodsburg Democrat: "Our Joe Blackburn, in the memorable struggle over the Repeal bill, voted for Senator Peffer's amendment. Peffer! The Populist cranks who introduced a bill into the Senate requiring the Government to coin $6,000,000,000 of money! Think of Joe Blackburn holding on to the coat tails of that wild Kansan coyote and dragging the State of Kentucky after him in such disreputable company!"

Hawesville Plaindealer: "Senator Joe Blackburn wears the scalp that Western Kentuckians are after. His recent performances in the Senate have brought him into contempt all over the State, and he will have serious opposition even in his own (Woodford) county. His inconsistent attitude toward the administration cannot be explained even by Blackburn's eloquence, and if the Legislature which is to elect a successor to Blackburn were to be chosen now, his name would be dough instead of Joe."

"Our New Navy."

Byron Williams will lecture on the above subject next Friday night at the court house for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A. The lecture will be illustrated with 130 stereoptican views of famous war vessels of the world, and will prove highly entertaining and instructive. The house should be crowded. Admission, 25 cents; reserved seats, 35 cents.

COUNTY CULLINGS.

GERMANTOWN.

Mrs. Tene Johnson returned to her home in Covington.

Rev. Dodd, of Covington, said the ceremony at the Humming-Ashbury wedding.

The fair held by the colored people was quite a success, financially and otherwise.

Elder McClellan failed to put in his appearance, but will be here on the fifth Sunday.

W. C. Johnson, having accepted a place in the revenue department, expects to move to Maysville about November 1st.

Marion Bass, living five miles south of town, was thrown from a horse on Sunday and had his leg broken just above the ankle.

Rev. Holmes, preacher in charge, has been conducting a meeting during the past week at Two Lick Baptist Church, with several additions.

Wm. Dickson and wife were on their way to Church when the horse frightened, ran over the bank, upsetting the buggy and throwing them out. Mrs. Dickson escaped with slight bruises, but Mr. Dickson was badly cut up about the head, and his limbs injured so that he will be confined for several days. On old man named Swigert, who keeps the tollgate on the Salem pike, in attempting to stop the horse, was seriously hurt. Fortunately no bones were broken.

Your correspondent spent several days recently an unwilling witness of the Criminal Court of our county. While we were very favorably impressed with our new Judge and Prosecuting Attorney and the court generally, we were thoroughly disgusted with the Justice as meted out by a jury, and especially of Bracken County, and no longer wonder why people take the law in their hands and administer summary punishment. As we traveled back and forth and while sitting in the court room our mind irresistibly wandered back to the days long gone by when Walker Reid, the stern and inflexible Judge, presided over the court, and General John Payne recorded its proceedings. The latter had a remarkable habit of sucking his tongue, especially when much excited. They were surrounded by such men as Harrison and John D. Taylor, John A. McClung, Thomas Y. Payne, Henry Waller, Francis T. Hord, Martin Marshall and son W. C., and others, a galaxy of legal ability not surpassed by any bar in the State, followed in late years by Henry Wadsworth, John N. Furber, Benj. Willis and many others. Their voices are no longer heard in the halls of justice, and the Judge and his clerk, the lawyer and his client, the officer and the jury have gone to that tribunal where the law is fixed and unchangeable, and justice is sure; where the Judge never makes a mistake and from whose decision there is no appeal.

TILTON, FLEMING COUNTY.

R. H. Sosley returned Saturday from a trip to Cincinnati.

James T. Highland and wife, of Montgomery County, visited the family of R. H. Sosley last week.

J. M. Heflin and son, Ernest, left Monday to visit the World's Fair, and will remain until about its close.

Mrs. Jane Ball and Mrs. Mary A. Browning, of Shannon, visited the family of F. P. Robertson Tuesday and Wednesday, last week.

The miserable failure to enforce Fleming County's prohibition law has encouraged increased violations of the measure. Disgraceful scenes were enacted on Monday (County Court day). The drunkenness was perfectly disgusting.

MINERVA.

Mrs. Buffington is very sick with malarial fever.

Miss Allison, of Washington, was calling on friends here last week.

Miss Etelle Hubbard, of Maysville, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. M. Shidell.

Mrs. Sheppard and daughter, Marie, have returned to their home at Gallipolis, O.

A Miss Howard and Miss Reynolds, of Indian Territory, are visiting Miss Rettie Smoot.

Our blacksmith, G. W. Garrison, has secured the assistance of his former help, Mr. Peter Weaver, for the coming winter.

Mrs. Marie Victor, son Willie, and daughter, Mrs. Foster, of Cheyenne, Wyo., are calling on relatives and friends in this vicinity.

Herbert Asbury, of Germantown, and a Miss Dwyer, of Covington, were the guests of Mrs. Bettie Worthington one evening last week.

Rev. Hall filled his regular appointment at the Reformed Church Sunday. His discourse, drawn from the twelfth chapter of Romans, was very convincing and instructive.

Rev. Waldrop of the M. E. Church, has concluded that this particular region needs a general shaking-up in religious affairs and has entered the arena, armed to the teeth, the avowed enemy of Satan and all his legion. With the aid of the lady evangelist, Miss Marrimon, he has kept up an earnest fight for the past two weeks, but being deprived of her assistance, he has secured the aid of the boy preacher, Rev. Clarke, of Augusta. With this new re-inforcement, Satan's camp will be invaded and his strongholds will be bombarded till his grip is loosened, and his tents pitched in some other quarter of the globe. Miss Marrimon succeeded in creating quite an interest in her meetings. Fully 500 people listened to her farewell discourse Sunday evening. The seats all being filled, the middle aisle was crowded with chairs; these were soon occupied; and ere long crowds of men and boys, from far and near, were obliged to stand by the walls in the outer aisles. The audience kept enlarging till even these were filled, and late arrivals thronged the vestibule.

The evening's talk was Miss Marrimon's own religious experiences and commanded excellent attention during the entire narration.

J. B. H. at Chicago.

Manhattan day, though signalized by the attendance of a very large crowd—over 800,000—must not be measured by the standard of mere numbers. It was the spirit that pervaded the family gathering in Festival Hall that made the day great and memorable—a success from start to finish. The New Yorkers were enchanted by the sight of the Phantom City.

"A phantom of delight,
When first she gleamed upon my sight."

They found its building palaces, its grounds and gardens, its lakes and its lagoons and islands a picture of fairyland, looking as if it had been sumitted into existence by the magic wand of an enchantress.

Being partial to the exercise of rhetorical skill in oral discourse you can fancy how I enjoyed Manhattan day when Gotham had sent the flower of its oratorical stock to Chicago, and Chicago had summoned its best to greet the 300,000 visitors.

Any one having a healthy knowledge of current events would not fail to recognize the leading speakers and notables on the platform in Festival Hall. The names of Flower, Depew, Cochran, Murphy, Sheehan, Croker, Talmage, Harrison, Gilroy, Porter and Douglass, are as familiar in the mouths of newspaper readers as household words.

When Commodore Vanderbilt bought the New York Central Railroad, he said, with the inspiration of a seer, that he bought it to dry up the Erie canal and drive the boats off the Hudson river. Seth Low, one of the orators, said he believed Chicago had fulfilled that prophecy!

It is a liberal education to have been to the fair—in the expansion of mind and elevation of thought which it has evoked.

It is a dream of beauty materialized to have seen—

"Thy spacious palace halls,
Pillars and domes and sculptured walls,
A miracle lu white."

BURNING BARN.

Work of the Fire Fiends in Kimball's Bottom, Opposite Springdale, Ky.

Brief mention was made in yesterday's issue of the BULLETIN of the work of some fire fiends in Kimball's Bottom, opposite Springdale. Additional particulars of the work of the outlaws have since been obtained.

Last Saturday afternoon Elijah Kimball went to his barn and found all his harness and two fine buggies totally ruined. They had been cut into shreds by unknown parties. At 5 o'clock the same evening, while the family of Sam Kimball, brother of Elijah, were at supper, the tobacco barn, in which was stored 10,000 pounds of tobacco, was discovered in flames, and before help arrived the building and contents had gone up in smoke.

Sunday morning the stable, containing valuable horses, was discovered by a passing pedicarion to be on fire. It contained a large number of fine farming implements and quite a quantity of corn, all of which entirely was entirely consumed, with the building. The horses were rescued.

Monday morning just at daybreak a young man, who was coming from his home in Manchester, discovered another large barn, belonging to Sam Kimball, on fire. He aroused the family and with the help of the neighbors, who hastily assembled, managed to save part of the building, not before, however, a large quantity of hay had been consumed. While fighting this fire flames were discovered in an outhouse near the residence of Mr. Kimball. A rush was made for it, and from a distance two men were seen escaping through a back window. Several shots were fired at them, but without effect.

The damage so far is estimated at $20,000. The Kimballs are men of high standing, and do not know that they have an enemy in the world.

Mysterious warnings have been received that all the barns and residences in the community will be fired inside of a week.

THE SEPARATE COACH LAW.

The Colored People of This City Enter Their Protest Against the Measure.

The following resolutions have been adopted by the Citizen Rights Association, composed of the colored people of this city:

We, the colored citizens of the city Maysville, County of Mason, State of Kentucky, rejoicing in the great boon of civil liberty and personal freedom won for us by two hundred and fifty years of unremitting toil and suffering by our ancestors, and the blood of our fathers upon the field of battle, and secured to us under the fundamental law of the country and State, in view of the passage and recent operation of that most offensive and infamous law known as the Separate Coach bill, do hereby serve notice upon the public in general that we are not unmindful of the wrong done this faithful American State by the State of Kentucky, or of the efforts offered on its behalf to sustain this bill by inferior provisions made for their travel by rail. Nor are we acquiescing without protest in the operation of the law, as has been stated by the city press. On the contrary our brethren in other parts of the country are already in the field. Our Central Committee, through Judge Feland, has already entered suit in behalf of the colored citizens in the State upon its constitutionality, and we have all hopes of success. If not in Kentucky, certainly in the Supreme Court of the land. In view of these facts, be it

Resolved, That we forward at once to the Central Committee at Frankfort the sum of sixty-six dollars and forty-six cents ($66.46) as the voluntary contribution from the colored citizens of Maysville for the contesting fund of the Separate Coach law.

Resolved, That we return thanks to the following committee on entertainment for services rendered and the sum of $19.40: Mrs. Young, Chairman; Mrs. Jordan, Mrs. Lee, Mrs. Natas, Miss Banks, Mrs. McFetars, Mrs. M. Green, Mrs. Darrell, Mrs. Brooks, Mrs. Graves, for their thank offerings, the drill for the entertainment.

Resolved, That we thank the members of the Plymouth Baptist Church and Scott Chapel M. E. Church and Order of Oddfellows for the use of their hall.

Resolved, That in vindication of our manhood and womanhood we urge upon our people in general the necessity of their refraining from traveling by rail, and adopt instead the boat and omnibus vehicles, even though it be inconvenient.

Resolved, That we are in the fight from start to finish, and whether we are successful or not, it shall go down in history that this negro in Kentucky did what he could to defeat the law that was intended for his humiliation.

Resolved, That these resolutions be published in the press of this city and the Lexington Standard. [Signed.]

JAMES R. SPURGEON, O. A. NEILSON, A. McDade, DR. S. W. STEVENS, T. F. ROBINSON, MARYETTA JACKSON, Secretary.

CONSPIRACY CHARGED.

A Missouri Court Enjoys Sixty-Five Persons.

MACON, Mo., Oct. 25.—Judge Ellison, at Kirksville, Mo., has granted temporary injunctions against some 65 persons, including the striking miners' committee, leaders of the strike, the city marshal of Bevier, President Walters of the miners' union and their agents and attorneys, restraining them from entering upon the lands and property of the Kansas and Texas Coal company at Bevier and Ardmore.

The Kansas and Texas company in seeking the order charged conspiracy to intimidate their workmen and alleged that their property is in danger from the strikers. The question of making the injunction permanent will come up later. Yesterday morning United States Marshal Buchanan from St. Louis arrested 14 of the strike leaders at Bevier for interfering with Loomis & Company's coal plant which is in the hands of a United States court receiver. The prisoners were taken to Hannibal. The miners will fight both cases to the end.

With this preface Mr. Stewart read a letter from a gentleman in Missouri sustaining his side of the silver question.
